DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

Claims 1, 10 & 85-105 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Yamaguchi et al(J Bone and Mineral Research Vol 13(10) 1998).

Yamaguchi teaches that CaR agonists stimulate the chemotaxis of cells having the CaR. The reference does not teach administering an agonist to a subject but given the teachings of Yamaguchi, it would have been obvious to administer an agonist to a subject in order to facilitate the migration of any known CaR-having cell with the reasonable expectation that the cells would migrate to the concentration of the agonists just as Yamaguchi showed in vitro. It also follows that if agonists will effect migration, then antagonists will as well.

Accordingly, the claimed invention was prima facie obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made especially in the absence of evidence to the contrary.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 91-92 and 105 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

It is unclear what is represented by NPS-2143 and NPS S-467, therefor the claims are indefinite.

Claim 86 apparently should be dependent on claim 85 and was interpreted as so.
